

AKANFO NANASOM

ANCIENT AUTHENTIC AKAN ANCESTRAL RELIGION

4-Week Online Course

Akan people of Ghana and Ivory Coast originated in ancient Khanit (Nubia) and would later migrate to West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) over 2,000 years ago. Centuries later some Akan were forced into the western hemisphere during the Mmusuo Kese, Great Perversity/Enslavement era, with many ending up in North America. Akan Ancestral Religion, Akanfo Nanasom, is an unbroken tradition from ancient Khanit and Kamit (Nubia and Egypt), through West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) to North America wherein our tradition is popularly called Hoodoo from the Akan term 'Ndu' (oohn-doooh) meaning 'medicine' from 'roots, trees, plant-life' (rootwork). Akan Ancestral Religion is also called Obeah in Jamaica which is derived from the Akan term 'obayi'. In Guyana it is called Comfa, from the Akan term 'okomfo'. In Suriname it is called Winti from the Akan term 'hwinti'.

We continue to be possessed by and communicate with the same Abosom (Deities) and Nananom Nsamanfo (Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors) today as we have for tens of thousands of years. Spirit-possession and spirit-communication is the foundation of Ancient Authentic Akan Ancestral Religion, free from the corruptions of the pseudo-religions of christianity, islam, judaism, hinduism, buddhism and white ill-culture. In this course we examine the pantheon of the Abosom (Deities) and the nature of the Nananom Nsamanfo (Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors) rooted in Akan cosmology and how they impact every aspect of our lives.
