

HOODOO

Akan Ancestral Religion in North America

New: 4-Week Online Course

Our new four-week online course within our institution AKONGUASUA examines the cosmological, trustorical and ritual foundation of HOODOO as Akan Ancestral Religion in North America preserved in the blood-circles of our Akan Nsamanfo, Ancestresses and Ancestors, for over 300 years. We examine our four books HOODOO PEOPLE and HOODOO MAYN: Hoodoo Nation Festival Nhoma (Journal) Volumes 1-3.

Hoodoo (ndu), conjure (kankye), haint (hintin), mojo (mogya), jack (gya), shout (dwo) Johnny Conqeroo (Nyamma Kakadu) and more are all Akan terms with the same multi-layered cosmological meanings intact in Hoodoo. We demonstrate the pantheon of Hoodoo Deities, the nature of Hoodoo philosophy and more which is unknown to many who identify as practitioners.

This four-week course is Part 1. Our related six-week course is Part 2. These courses can be taken separately or simultaneously.

Course Facilitator: Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan, author of 31 books.

Every Dwooda (Monday) from October 14th ~ November 4th at 8pm EST

Registration for our course is $20. Reserve your spot today:
