Male Deity of Divine Law ~ Counterpart of Maat

6-Week Online Course

MAA is the Ntoro (God) of Divine Law and Balance and is the counterpart of MAAT the Ntorot (Goddess) of Divine Law and Balance. MAA is one-half of the Divine Law, the Expression of Divine Order, undergirding all of Creation. Our capacity to function harmoniously in the world as Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) people is dependent upon our alignment with MAA and MAAT - these Divine Spirit-Forces in Creation.

MAA and MAAT were worshipped in ancient Khanit and Kamit (Nubia and Egypt) and continue to be invoked by the same names and descriptive titles in Akan Ancestral Religion, Yoruba Ancestral Religion, Ewe Ancestral Religion and other Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) traditions all over Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). The worship of MAA and MAAT was also carried in the blood-circles of our Ancestresses and Ancestors to the western hemisphere and continues within Hoodoo (Akan), Juju (Yoruba), Voodoo (Ewe) and more in North America.

Many who purport to be scholars or initiates in the culture of Kamit have been uninformed regarding the identity of MAA and his relationship to MAAT for decades thus rendering their spiritual practice and cosmological understanding incomplete. We correct the record in our 6-week online course which is based upon our publications.
